

Eiteljorg Museum of American Indians and Western Art

IMAGE REQUEST INFORMATION

How to Request an Image

Photographic materials of objects owned by the Eiteljorg Museum are available to scholars, educators, publishing companies, and commercial entities, with the prior written approval from the museum. If you would like to request an image, please fill out an image request form.

Please plan ahead when requesting images. In the case of living artists, the Eiteljorg Museum will require the artist's permission in writing before releasing any photographic materials. It is the responsibility of the applicant to obtain this permission.

Normal processing of requests takes four to six weeks. Rush requests will be considered individually and may require additional fees. Reproduction and/or new photography fees may apply.

Delivery

Images will be delivered via an online file hosting software.

COPYRIGHT INFORMATION

The Eiteljorg Museum does not own copyright for any of the artwork in the Museum's collection. While the Museum will furnish as much information, pertaining to copyright as possible, it is the ultimate responsibility of the applicant to research outside copyrights.

IMAGE FEE SCHEDULE

Fees are subject to change without notice. Non-profit fees apply to personal use, academic use, or use by an organization such as an educational institution (school, university, museum, library), charity, or non-profit, tax-exempt [501(c)(3)] organization. Commercial fees apply to businesses such as commercial publishing houses utilizing our photographic materials for profit.

Fees are payable primarily by check in U.S. dollars or by credit card. Detailed payment instructions will be forwarded once images have been requested.

Permission is granted for one-time reproduction rights in one language, one edition only, unless otherwise negotiated. Further language rights, revised editions, and additional use will require additional approval and possible additional fees.
